Help shape the future of your local community college

Moreno Valley College invites your feedback on the College's new Comprehensive Master Plan, which is currently in development. Join us to review multiple concepts for campus development that showcase big ideas and development strategies for land use, potential new building sites and major renovations as well as goals for open space, pedestrian and vehicle circulation systems, and parking.

A short presentation outlining the progress of the plan and introducing planning concepts will be followed by an open discussion session. You'll have the opportunity to speak directly to the planning team and MVC administrators, ask questions, and give feedback. Students, employees, administration and community members are encouraged to attend to provide input.

Continental breakfast will be served
