MVC Mountain Lion Etiquette

Please always mute your audio if you are not speaking. If you have a question or comment, use the raise hand icon to be called upon.

The chat function is enabled, and you can communicate with the speakers and fellow attendees.

Turning on your video camera is encouraged if you are in a space with minimal distractions behind you. Having your camera on enhances us being together as a community but be mindful to not distract others.

SEVENTH ANNUAL DIVERSITY SUMMIT

Featured on Day 2 of the Diversity Summit

Pedro Noguera, Ph.D.

Pedro Noguera is one of the nation's leading scholars on issues related to race, inequality and education. Prior to coming to USC to serve as the Emery Stoops and Joyce King Stoops Dean of the Rossier School of Education, he served as a Professor of Education and holder of endowed chairs at UCLA, NYU, Harvard University and the University of California, Berkeley.

He is the author of 15 books. His most recent book, entitled A Search for Common Ground: Conversations About the Tough Questions and Complex Issues Confronting K-12 Education in the United States Today with co-author Rick Hess, was the winner of the American Association of Publishers Prose Award in 2021. Noguera serves as a special advisor to the governor of New Mexico on education policy, and he advises the state departments of education in Washington, Oregon and Nevada.

In 2022, Noguera was appointed to President Biden's National Commission on Hispanics and to serve as the co-chair of the state of California's Black Student Achievement Taskforce. In 2014, he was elected to the National Academy of Education and Phi Delta Kappa honor society, and in 2020, Noguera was elected to the American Academy of Arts and Sciences.

Noguera has received seven honorary doctorates from American universities, and received awards from the Center for the Advanced Study in the Behavioral Sciences at Stanford University, the National Association of Secondary School Principals, and from the McSilver Institute for Poverty Policy and Research at NYU for his research and advocacy efforts aimed at fighting poverty. In 2023 he was ranked first in the nation for influence and impact in the field of education by Education Week.
